PLAINTIFFS,

v.

Case No. 19-CV-449

Wisconsin Election Commission,
Marge Bostelmann, Julie Glancey,
Ann Jacobs, Dean Knudsen
Mark Thomsen, DEFENDANTS.

ORDER

Having considered the Motion of Plaintiffs to hold the Defendants in Contempt of Court and for Remedial Sanctions, Defendants' response, and arguments made by the parties at the January 13, 2020 hearing, the Court hereby finds that the Defendants have not complied with this Court's Writ of Mandamus issued December 17, 2019 and that the failure to comply constitutes continuing contempt of court on the part of the Defendants Wisconsin Election Commission ("WEC") and the following three Commissioners: Julie Glancey, Anne Jacobs, and Mark Thomsen.

Therefore, for the reasons stated in this Court's oral ruling at the January 13, 2020 hearing, the Court holds that Defendants WEC and Commissioners Glancey, Jacobs and Thomsen can purge their contempt by complying with the Writ of Mandamus forthwith. As a remedial sanction, the Court imposes, starting on the date that the Court signs this Order, a forfeiture of $250 per day against each of the Defendants Glancey, Jacobs and Thomsen, and a forfeiture of $50 per day against Defendant WEC, until the Defendants comply with the Writ of Mandamus.

This order is a final order for purposes of an appeal under Wis. Stat. § 808.03(1).
